Meeting of Republicans at Pythian

ADDRESSED BY ROMEO H. FREER. Richard Robertson Calls the Meeting to Order and Introduces S. O. Boyce

as Chairman-Mr. Boyce Eulogizes Congressman Freer-Much Enthusiasm Manifested-Text of Colonel Freer's Remarks-The Attendance Was a Disappointment,

While the attendance at the Republi-can meeting at Pythian Castle, on the South Side, last night, was not as large so it might have been, owing to nu-merous counter attractions, yet it was very enthusiastic, and what it lacked in numbers it made up in enthusiasm. Anson for the slim attendance other reason for the sim attendance was the fact that the meeting was im-provised and gotten up on the spur of the moment, without any previous preparation. The meeting was called to order at The meeting was County Clerk Richard Robertson, who introduced in a few well chosen words Attorney Samuel O. as chairman of the meeting, Mr Hoyce arose, and delivered the follow-ing remarks: "Fellow-citizens:—It is a pity that this hall is not crowded, but the absentees are the losers. I will not absentees are the losers. take up your time, because the gentle-man I am to introduce can more ably and unquestionably more eloquently, talk to you. speaker continued, "and I will make a tew personal observations. Politics are act occupying the public attention just now. President McKinley-is certain to be returned to the white house in the national contest. There is no doubt that the Republican party will triumph that the Republican party will trumpal in the congressional elections. I am not discussing partisan politics to any great extent. The principles of the party in power are necessary for the continuance of present conditions. It is well for us sometimes to ask ourselves. well for us sometimes to ask oursalves the question: Why are we Republicans? I never had any use for a Republican who could not look his neighbor equare in the face and say, 'I am a Republican.' I have been a Republican all the can. I have been a Republican all the years of my manhood, and I have never regretted one vote. I want to ask any man here of my age if he resrets a vote for Lincoln. I want to ask him if he regrets a vote for Grant. I want to ask him if he regrets a vote for Mc-Kinley. Who regrets it?

The entertsinment to be given at the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday evenings by the alumni promises to be something fine, and equal if not superior to any home talent entertainment given in this city this season. Part one, "King Winter's Carnival." will be a decided novelty, in which about fifty children will take part. "The Temple of Fame, the second part, will be very interesting, as well as instructive, and will in inself be an excellent history lesson. Mrs. Flora Williams, Wheeling's famous sopraro, who is so well and favorably known in this city, will be present and remder several vocal selections each evening. Special scenery has been prepared by J. F. Blumenberg for the occasion, and the costumes will be very pretty and novel. Owing to so many children taking part, the performance will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.
